

What's New at Warren?

Welcome Elementary Parents and Students to the 2017-2018 school year. There have been some exciting changes over the summer for both Warren and Little Hocking Elementary Schools!

Ms. Robin Carter will now serve as Elementary Principal for both Little Hocking and Warren Elementary. Ms. Carter joined Warren Local in 2014 serving as principal of Barlow-Vincent Elementary. Before coming to Warren, Ms. Carter was an elementary principal in Mason County West Virginia, served as Special Education and Curriculum Director for New Lexington City Schools, and has taught both regular and special education in Gallia County, Ohio as well as Big Walnut Local Schools. Ms. Carter resides in Marietta, Ohio with her two dogs, James and Maggie, plus cat Theodore. She is the mother of two children and grandmother to one. She enjoys gardening, reading, cooking, being a grandma, traveling, and working to remodel her older home.

Warren welcomes, Mr. Joe Oliverio who will now serve as Associate Principal at both Warren and Little Hocking Elementary. Mr. Oliverio comes to us from Pleasants County, WV where he has lived for the past 29 years and presently resides there with his wife Paula and daughter Alyssa and 2 dogs Lexie and Lucky. Joe has taught high school bands and choirs in WV for a combined 14 years and his 17 years of administrative experiences include serving as assistant principal, principal, and Director of Elementary Schools for Wood County, as well as the Executive Director for RESA 5 which serves as a Regional Education Service Agency to 8 counties in WV. In addition to speaking nationally at conferences, he loves to travel and has officiated high school and collegiate basketball for over 28 years.

Ms. Carter and Mr. Oliverio will divide their days at a both Warren and Little Hocking Elementary Schools. They can be contacted at: wl\_rcarter@warrenlocal.org;
